TRANSPORTATION & LOGISTICS CONFERENCE

August 29, 2023
Renaissance Long Beach Hotel

The global economy depends on connection – pathways through which people, goods, and services move across skies, roads, rails, and oceans with speed, safety, and efficiency. The rapid sophistication of the transportation and logistics sectors has fueled global economic growth, while revealing weaknesses. Middle market leaders face new challenges brought on by evolving technologies, the aftermath of an unforeseen pandemic, and a recognized responsibility to keep vital supply chains operational. Whether you work in this sector or you are impacted by this dynamic space, the ACG Los Angeles Transportation & Logistics Conference is an opportunity to hear from leading dealmakers and value-creators.
