

CALL FOR VOLUNTEERS:

Be Part of the Premier Middle Market Conference Event in the Southeast

Are you interested in private equity, finance, or event management? Looking to build your resume, grow your network, and gain real-world experience at a high-profile industry event?

We're seeking motivated student and professional volunteers to support the upcoming 2025 Florida ACG Capital Connection taking place on Tuesday, 11/4 - Thursday, 11/6 at JW Marriott Orlando Grande Lakes.

This exclusive conference will gather over 1,000 top investors, fund managers, institutional partners, professional advisors and thought leaders from across the private equity landscape. As a volunteer, you'll play a key role in delivering a seamless, high-impact experience for attendees.

WHAT YOU WILL GAIN:

- Exposure to senior professionals in private equity and finance
- First-hand experience managing a professional business event
- Networking opportunities with industry leaders and peers
- Complimentary meals and free parking
- Conference "swag bag"
- Ability to attend sessions that may interest you - Keynote lunch speaker (Damola Adamolekun, CEO of Red Lobster), Emerging Professionals Networking, Women's Networking, panel discussions and more ...

VOLUNTEER ROLES MAY INCLUDE:

- Registration and guest check-in
- Guest Services
- Exhibitor/Sponsor support
- Sessions & speaker(s) support
- Attendee flow management
- Photographs/Reels for Social Media

Email Sherry Smith, Conference Manager, at acgflorida@acg.org for link to volunteer sign-up sheet or for more information

IDEAL FOR:

Students in accounting, economics, finance, business, or related fields; students interested in the hospitality industry; a strong interest in the private equity space.

Spaces are limited. Join us behind the scenes and help shape one of the most influential gatherings in the private equity world.