One of the pillars of ACG Orange County's popular Women in Leadership program is the women-only networking luncheon for members and guests. Meet accomplished subject matter experts across the professional services realm, take advantage of opportunities to speak, and share your insights and referrals with some of the most influential women in OC business — all for the cost of a lunch.

Have your LinkedIn profile ready to share, bring your business cards and your best elevator speech to the Capital Grille. But, remember, seating is limited to the first 30 who register, so make your reservations TODAY!
