Role & Responsibilities

As a Private Risk Advisor at APRM, Elise provides risk management solutions and day-to-day account management exclusively for prominent individuals, businesses, and family offices, protecting their tangible assets and personal wealth from loss and liability exposures. Elise's concentration is providing tailored and creative insurance solutions to the affluent with significant assets and unique risk profiles. She excels in client relationship building, listening to client needs, crafting comprehensive insurance programs, and ensuring their assets are protected.

Experience

Elise has over 20 years of combined experience in the high-net-worth guest experience and personal lines insurance space. She began her career in hospitality management for over a decade in the most elite resorts across the world, learning the value of exceptional service and anticipating the needs of her clients. She then transitioned her hospitality skills to risk management at a regional agency in New England. Elise joined Aon Private Risk Management in 2021.

Professional Designations

CPRIA, Chartered Private Risk and Insurance Advisor

Family Office certification, Private Risk Management Association

Personal

Elise earned a Bachelor of Science from University of South Carolina. She also received course credits from Rangsit University, a private university in Thailand. Previously, Elise lived in five countries for her hotel career and volunteering. Currently, Elise resides in Naples, FL and enjoys traveling (nationally and internationally), volunteering (Board of Director and Secretary at Naples Therapeutic Riding Center), tennis and pickleball, music, fine dining, Burn Bootcamp, attending car and art events, golf, and welding.
