About the Summit

The 13th Annual ACG New York Women of Leadership (WOL) Summit, taking place on May 14, 2026 at the New York Athletic Club, is a premier national gathering of 300+ female dealmakers and middle-market M&A professionals from across the country. This full-day conference convenes senior leaders, investors, advisors, and operators for curated dealmaking meetings, high-impact programming, interactive workshops, and intentional networking - creating an unmatched environment for relationship-building and business development within the middle-market ecosystem.

Sponsorship of the WOL Summit offers firms a powerful platform to align their brand with leadership, innovation, and inclusion while engaging directly with a highly targeted and influential audience. Sponsors benefit from brand exposure through ACG New York's extensive marketing channels, on-site visibility at one of New York City's most prestigious venues, and meaningful access to attendees actively seeking new relationships, partnerships, and solutions. The Summit's intentionally curated format ensures sponsors are not simply visible - but fully integrated into the attendee experience.

In addition to brand recognition, sponsors gain direct access to dealmaking opportunities through participation in exclusive one-on-one meetings, programming, and marketplace engagement. The Summit attracts decision-makers spanning private equity, investment banking, lending, corporate development, family offices, and professional services - making it an ideal forum for firms seeking to deepen existing relationships, originate new opportunities, and strengthen their position within the middle-market community.

The Women of Leadership Summit has built a strong national reputation for delivering substantive content, authentic connection, and measurable business value. Sponsoring this flagship event demonstrates a firm's commitment to supporting women leaders while providing a highly effective avenue for thought leadership, client development, and sustained brand impact within the middle-market dealmaking landscape.
