

Lisa-Marie Codrington
NJ TRANSIT

Lisa-Marie Codrington is Senior Director of the Office Business Development for NJ TRANSIT, New Jersey's public transportation corporation. The Office of Business Development (OBD) is housed within NJ TRANSIT's Office of Civil Rights and is responsible for the administration of NJ TRANSIT's Disadvantaged Business Enterprise (DBE) and Small Business Enterprise (SBE) programs. As the Senior Director, Lisa-Marie leads a team of professionals that work with internal and external stakeholders to develop, implement, and monitor corporate-wide organizational policies, procedures and practices that ensure compliance with federal and state DBE/SBE program requirements. She provides high-level direction and guidance on matters related to DBE certification and DBE/SBE contract compliance; leads DBE outreach and supportive services efforts; and partners with internal business units on execution and reporting for all NJ TRANSIT projects and initiatives that may provide opportunities for businesses which have experienced challenges when competing for contracting opportunities historically. Lisa-Marie is passionate for the work she does to help create a level playing field for DBE/SBE contractors.

Lisa-Marie earned an MBA and BS in Finance with Honors from Rutgers University College – Business School in Newark, NJ. She is also a Certified Compliance Administrator (CCA) with the American Contract Compliance Association.
