Many cyber security professionals today will tell you it's not if your company's digital assets will be under attack. It's when.

You'll be far more prepared to meet the threat after hearing our expert panel take you on a deep dive into the dark water of cyber terrorism. Learn from experiences of companies that have been hit and lived to tell about it.

Join us for an interactive discussion, moderated by our new ACG OC Academy sponsor, Knobbe Martens. Your ticket includes a sandwich and lunch salad and, as always, plenty of time for networking.
