Testimonials...

"There is nothing better for a speaker than to present to an engaged audience. The women at the AIM conference were attentive, energized and warm. What a joy to celebrate women winning and learning together while lifting each other up! The event ran like clockwork and the staff was on top of all the details. They handled it all like pros; the only thing I had to do was deliver my presentation. I'd happily present at AIM again. It's a terrific celebration of leading women."

Testimonials...

“My experience as a vendor at the AIM event was wonderful. We sold out of several of our products and had the chance to interact with a majority of the attendees. We’ve increased our network with quality connections and also fostered other business opportunities through our connections that day. The staff had everything set up nicely, we look forward to being a vendor again.”
