BOLD AWARDS NOMINATION PROCESS

Q What are the award categories?

A The BOLD Awards will honor small and growing, as well as large companies that exhibit innovative approaches and BOLD ways to address market challenges. Awards will recognize companies and leadership teams for Innovation, Talent Management, Growth, Collaboration, and Daring BOLD.

Q How do I nominate?

A To recognize a BOLD initiative, Be BOLD: Click the "nominate" link on the ACG Minnesota homepage (www.acg.org/minnesota). Then proceed to the nomination instructions and form. Provide general company background, as well as specific information about the BOLD endeavors of your nominee. In addition, you will also provide contact information for the nominee and up to seven team members. A company/organization logo (JPEG) will also be requested.

- Q Does the nominee need to be an ACG Minnesota member to receive consideration?
A No. We encourage members and nonmembers alike to nominate and participate. Judges will not be informed of member/nonmember status during the review and selection process, and ACG membership will not affect the selection decisions. Judging is held to the highest standards.
- Q Who can be nominated?
A Companies, private or public, as well as entrepreneurs and nonprofits that demonstrate BOLD bets are eligible. Organizations may be small and growing or large and established or somewhere in between. Nominees must be Minnesota-based, or have made a significant contribution or impact here.
- Q When should the big deal have occurred?
A The BOLD initiative must have taken place between January 1, 2018 and December 31, 2019 (past 24 months).
- Q Can I submit more than one nomination?
A Yes. You may complete as many BOLD Award nominations as you want. You may enter different projects, products, strategies, and BOLD innovations for one organization or for several.
- Q When are nominations due?
A Nominations must be submitted by November 15, 2019.
- Q How will nominees be judged?
A All nominations will be reviewed, ranked, and awarded by a peer panel of judges representing the middle market community. Judges will include corporate leaders, service professionals, and entrepreneurs.
Judges will be in attendance at the January 9, 2020 Nominee Reception. It is very important that all nominees have representation from their firm at this pre-event Nominee Reception, as this is part of the judging process.
- Q What is the pre-event Nominee Reception?
A Board members, judges, sponsors, nominees, and nominators will be in attendance at this networking reception which is part of the judging process. The Nominee Reception is scheduled for Thursday, January 9, 2020.
- Q Will information contained in my nomination be privileged?
A Yes. We understand that some of the information shared through the nominations process may be proprietary. We will ensure that only judges and the ACG Minnesota board and staff members have access to this information.
- Q Is there a fee to nominate?
A No. There is no fee to submit a nomination. All nominees will receive one complimentary ticket to the BOLD Awards event and all nominees are expected to attend the Nominee Reception which is part of the judging process.
- Q When will nominees be notified?
A All nominees will be notified of finalist outcomes by mid-February 2020. All winners will be announced at the BOLD Awards Tuesday, February 25, 2020 and the BOLDest of the BOLD picked that evening by a live audience vote.
