Assistant Vice President, Relationship Manager
Middle Market Banking
Wells Fargo & Company

Haley Korthuis is an assistant vice president and relationship manager for the Wells Fargo Middle Market Banking Office in Grand Rapids, Michigan. She is responsible for originating and managing opportunities for traditional and non-traditional banking products and services for middle market companies.

A West Michigan native, Haley began her banking career in 2014 as a financial analyst for Wells Fargo in Grand Rapids, as part of Wells Fargo's Financial Analyst Program. Starting in January 2017, Haley moved to San Francisco, California to participate in Wells Fargo's Credit Management Training Program which is an advanced credit training curriculum delivered in a hands-on learning environment and prepares participants to develop the necessary skills to make informed credit decisions.

After graduating from the Credit Management Training Program in May 2017, Haley moved back to Grand Rapids where she currently works as a middle market banker managing a portfolio of profitable middle market relationships.

Haley earned her Bachelor of Arts degree in Finance from Michigan State University in East Lansing, Michigan.

Haley is active in many community and professional organizations. She is a current board member for the Grand Rapids Civic Theatre, a committee member with ACG West Michigan's Women in Finance and is also a member of the West Michigan Spartans Alumni Group.

Haley lives in Grand Haven, MI with her husband.
