

Krista Flynn is the Regional President of TCF Bank's West Region, a position she has held since joining the former Chemical Bank in July 2018. TCF Bank is the largest financial institution headquartered in Michigan.

She has more than 25 years of experience in the financial industry, including Commercial Banking Market Manager at PNC Bank, and various positions at JPMorgan Chase and its predecessor banks. Roles included Middle Market Banking, Capital Markets, Automotive Specialty Group, and Credit.

She is on the Boards of the Michigan Economic Development Corporation, Grand Action Committee, The Right Place, Junior Achievement, and K-Connect. She also volunteers and supports the Association for Corporate Growth Western Michigan, Kids' Food Basket, Egypt Valley Country Club committees and Heart of West Michigan United Way.

Krista holds a B.B.A. in Finance from the University of Michigan and an M.S. in Finance from Walsh College. She and her husband, Paul, live in Ada and have two teenage boys. She enjoys golf, international travel, reading and her Boston Terrier, Tripp.