Attorney at Rhoades McKee

Peter is an attorney and trusted adviser to businesses and business owners. He helps organizations navigate through sophisticated transactions, including mergers and acquisitions and commercial financing. Peter works with affordable housing developers seeking Low Income Housing Tax Credits (LIHTC), Rental Assistance Demonstration (RAD) conversions, regulatory issues associated with tax-exempt entities and tax planning. In addition, he routinely assists clients with the development and implementation of their succession plans, corporate governance, ownership structure, and dispute resolutions
