

Patrick Robey | patrick@caldergr.com
<https://www.linkedin.com/in/patrickrobey/>

The bulk of Patrick's experience is in Private Equity and Corporate Development, which he has been involved in since 2013 and where he has managed and executed multiple platform and add-on transactions. Patrick has experience in leading all areas of an acquisition, from sourcing potential targets to leading the due diligence and closing processes to managing and executing post-close operational activities and strategies.

Patrick has worked on a variety of different types of transactions, featuring a broad range of enterprise values, deal complexity, transaction type (merger, add-on, financial LBO, etc.), and other deal factors. Patrick has extensive experience within the industry at firms such as J.P. Morgan Chase, Blackford Capital, Old National Bank, and Calder Capital.

Patrick has bachelor's degrees in both management and economics from Hope College. He is actively involved in the Grand Rapids and Holland communities including active participation in Hope College through the Department of Economics, Management, and Accounting and the Hope Entrepreneurship Initiative as well as participation in the Association for Corporate Growth, West Michigan. Patrick resides in Holland with his wife, Olivia, and their two Australian Shephard puppies, Lincoln and Tilly.