“ I joined ACG having attended numerous events across Europe, becoming one of a number of my colleagues across the globe to enjoy the well-curated and widely attended networking events that the group organises. Our institution is heavily focused on international M&A, and I have found the ACG one of the best forums within which to interact with likeminded professionals. Events are well attended by fellow private equity firms as well as leading intermediaries within international M&A. I have no hesitation in recommending the ACG to fellow M&A professionals, particularly those with a focus on international markets and cross-border activity ”
