In the United States, M&A, PE, and VC investment in financial technology during the first half of '21 almost equaled the total investment across the industry throughout all of 2020. A panel of experts will discuss how these leading edge companies raise capital, grow their teams, and address challenges such as data security, compliance with government regulations and user experience. They will also address big data and AI Integration.

ACG Orange County's thought leading Academy series is back! Sign up today for a lunch and learn package that includes sandwich and a lunch salad – and, as always, lots of high-level networking.
