

A Wealth of Networking Opportunities for OC's Top Female Business Professionals

ACG Orange County's popular Women in Leadership program is back — in person — with a great new slate of monthly networking luncheons designed for ACG OC Members and guests. Meet accomplished subject matter experts across the professional services realm, take advantage of opportunities to speak, and share your insights and referrals with some of the most accomplished women in business — all for the cost of a lunch.

Bring your business cards and your best elevator speech to the Capital Grille. But, remember, seating is limited to the first 25 who register, so make your reservations TODAY!
