

Announcing New Chapter President and Board Members

We are pleased to announce the newly elected President and Board Members for the Denver Chapter of the Association for Corporate Growth (ACG) as of September 1, 2017. ACG Denver President David Roberts states, "I am excited by the opportunity to build on the accomplishments of our previous leaders and continue the growth and success of our chapter. Our goal is to create a diverse community of business leaders united around a common goal—supporting and encouraging the growth and success of Colorado's middle market businesses."

CHAPTER PRESIDENT

David Roberts is Managing Director of Newport Board Group where he offers an extensive background as a business strategist, advisor, entrepreneur and CEO. He served with Bain and Company as a Vice President and Partner for 14 years, and has driven high-impact changes in strategy, operations and organization for over 150 businesses and companies in the US, Europe, Latin America and East Asia.

NEW BOARD MEMBERS

Dan Bruder is CEO of Fusion Dynamics Group where he has created the Strategy WhiteboardT System, leveraging technology and dynamic workshops that enable companies to develop a strategic focus with built-in implementation measures and accountability. This System also serves as the platform for teaching Capstone Strategic Planning in the Executive MBA and Early Career MBA programs at Colorado State University.

Michelle Carr is a Partner at Hein & Associates, where she works primarily with technology and software firms, manufacturing and distribution companies and clients in the mining sector. She serves both privately held companies and publicly traded corporations, and oversees a variety of assurance engagements and consulting projects.

David Harper has held leadership roles in investment banking, private equity and most recently as an operator. His business experience includes working across several industries during periods of growth and contraction, in both domestic and international settings, and he has been a member of various ACG organizations across the country for more than a decade.

Tony Giordano is President of BKD Corporate Finance, LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of BKD that provides services to help companies and stockholders create value and meet their corporate finance objectives. He joined BKD Corporate Finance in 2007 and is responsible for managing corporate finance engagements including mergers and acquisitions, debt and equity financing, company divestitures and strategic option analysis.

Chris Lueth is a Relationship Manager for KeyBank's Commercial Banking group in the Colorado market. He is responsible for delivering comprehensive, personalized advice to middle market businesses regarding KeyBank's ability to resolve capital constraints through creative and effective product and service offerings. A native of Iowa, Chris has been a member of the Denver business community for almost 5 years.

ACG Denver

Founded in 1954, the Association for Corporate Growth has 59 chapters and 14,500 members around the world. ACG serves 90,000 investors, owners, executives, lenders and advisers to growing middle-market companies. ACG's mission is to drive middle-market growth. The Denver Chapter of ACG is the premier business association in the Rocky Mountain Region offering access to the expert people and essential resources that help drive middle-market growth.