Denver Chapter of the Association for Corporate Growth (ACG) Names Dorothy Donnelly as Executive Director.

Denver, CO — JAN 5, 2017 — The board of directors of ACG Denver today announced it had appointed Dorothy Donnelly as their Executive Director effective January 3, 2017.

“Dorothy is clearly the right choice for ACG Denver’s future, and she has the unanimous support of the Board of Directors. She has demonstrated immense energy and passion in serving ACG Denver along with the intellect, integrity and charisma required for the position. Dorothy stands apart as a leader with an extraordinary ability to connect vision, people and ideas to drive strategy and execution”, said Mike Hartman, ACG Denver Board President.

Donnelly has been involved with ACG Denver for more than a decade in various roles, including as past Chair of the Rocky Mountain Corporate Growth Conference and as Marketing Chair on its Board of Directors from 2010-2012. As owner of DenMark Communications for the past five years, Donnelly provided outsourced association management services for ACG Denver. She has helped lead and execute many of the organization’s strategy shifts and key initiatives. Donnelly has dissolved DenMark Communications in order to give ACG Denver her focused and dedicated attention.

In her role, Donnelly collaborates with the ACG Denver Board to design, develop and implement strategic plans for the organization. She is also responsible for the day-to-day operation of the organization, including managing committees and staff as well as developing business plans in collaboration with the Board.
