

Gavin Fielden

Sr. Managing Director

TriVista

Gavin Fielden leads TriVista's Global Transaction Advisory practice where he specializes in operations and supply chain due diligence for private equity firms. He works directly with clients as a partner in the pre and post-acquisition phases to identify operational improvement strategies.

Gavin and his team have completed more than 500 operations diligence assignments across a wide array of manufacturing and distribution related business environments. He brings more than 25 years of industry experience in corporate strategy, operations, general management, manufacturing, and product management to the role.
