

Giles Sutton

Partner

DHG Tax

Giles Sutton is a Tax Partner in the Memphis, TN office of DHG LLP. Giles is a nationally recognized state and local tax practitioner and has over twenty-five years of corporate tax experience. He has consulted with companies ranging in size from middle-market to the Fortune 40. Giles recently joined the Firm after practicing law at a Washington, DC firm, specializing in state and local tax. His focus is on the multi-state aspects of corporate income and franchise taxes, mergers and acquisitions and sales tax issues. In particular, he focuses on areas of multi-state taxation that have a significant impact on companies with multijurisdictional operations. He has handled tax issues pertaining to various corporate restructurings, post-acquisition integration, global supply chain-based tax planning, and the interaction of federal international tax law with state and local tax laws. Giles' industry specialties include retailers, restaurants, transportation, and consumer products.
