LIFE CYCLE OF PRIVATE EQUITY

ACG Denver Public Policy Advocacy in Action

Meeting with Colorado Democrats Emphasizes Importance of Middle-Market PE Investment

By David Harper

Managing Director of Leveraged Finance, Sunflower Bank

ACG Global conducts a very active ongoing public policy program to educate policy makers about the outsized impact that the U.S. middle-market has on jobs and economic growth, including the potential effects of policy proposals on the middle-market ecosystem.

As part of this national initiative, I recently met with the staff of Colorado Congressman Jason Crow (D-CO) to explain the beneficial role that middle-market private equity investment plays in the overall economy. Also discussed was how the “Stop Wall Street Looting Act of 2019,” recently introduced by Senator Elizabeth Warren (D-MA), would have a negative impact on both private equity investment and middle-market business growth. 2020 Mile High Deal Making Pre-Registration Ends Jan. 16

ACG Denver invites private equity and investment banking professionals to join us for Mile High Deal Making, one of our most popular networking events for the dealmaking community! Join us on January 21 from 5:30-7:30pm at the Halcyon Hotel – a boutique hotel in the heart of Cherry Creek – and create deeper relationships with your M&A colleagues.

For those joining from out of town, this event takes place following the long Martin Luther King Day weekend, providing the perfect opportunity to join us after a ski weekend at one of Colorado's world class mountain resorts. You might also explore the National Western Stock Show & Rodeo, the world's largest stock show, featuring more than 15,000 animals, top-notch bull riders, rodeos, horse shows, livestock competitions and auctions. Learn more and pre-register by noon on Thursday, January 16.
