Tim Macdonald

Product Manager

Eze Castle Integration

Tim Macdonald is a Product Manager for Eze Castle Integration where he is responsible for supporting product offerings across multiple business lines and coordinating technology development. Tim has over 10 years of experience at Eze Castle delivering technology solutions in the financial services and managed service provider industries. Tim graduated from Northeastern University with a Bachelor's degree in Business Administration.