SPONSORSHIP OVERVIEW

Corporate development deal makers play a pivotal role in the strategic revenue growth of their employer. Their job titles and scope of responsibilities vary, and touch upon business development, strategic partnerships, and acquisitions and divestitures.

People employed in this role, have diverse skill sets and job responsibilities that often include working with lenders to secure financing for an acquisition, recruiting new management to support the operations of that acquisition, leading the team working toward the divestiture of assets, all while managing an expansive portfolio of intellectual property. Everyone in this role is looking for means to grow business for their company, and the middle market yields a plethora of new revenue opportunities.

In the fall of 2019, ACG will launch its inaugural Strategic Acquirer Summit, to meet the needs of this unique group. The conference will focus on peer-to-peer networking and education, and is limited to corporate M&A professionals and select sponsors.

ACG is currently accepting sponsorships that will support and engage this unique audience and valuable professional group.
