

Tommy Varnell

Senior Manager

DHG Tax

Tommy Varnell is a Senior Manager in DHG's Atlanta office, specializing in State and Local Tax (SALT) matters. Tommy primarily focuses on indirect tax and unclaimed property matters, but his versatile background allows him to get involved in other areas as well. Tommy possesses 15 years of tax experience, with a blend of both consulting and industry. He has had involvement with a wide variety of industries including manufacturing, service, retail, transportation, healthcare, telecommunications and technology. Tommy is involved in the following types of services at DHG: nexus studies, voluntary disclosures, tax / unclaimed property compliance, product and service taxability analyses, reverse audits, compliance reviews, audit defense, credit / incentive analyses, ASC 450 assistance (formerly FAS 5), and general tax research in a wide variety of areas
