

The logo for ACG Seattle is displayed on a light green background. The letters 'ACG' are in a large, bold, dark grey font, with a registered trademark symbol (®) to the upper right. The word 'Seattle' is in a smaller, dark grey font to the right of 'ACG'. The background features a network diagram with white circles and lines, and a faint city skyline silhouette.

ACG® Seattle

Y20 – A YOUNG PROFESSIONALS GROUP

“Through Y20, I was able to build meaningful relationships with my peers at professional services firms creating an invaluable network that I know I will be able to leverage for years to come.”

-Kristin Brandtner, Vice President, Meridian Capital LLC

"In less than a year of the Y20 program, I've made deep connections with the other Y20 members and I feel integrated as an ACG Member."
- Jose Romero, Senior Manager, Moss Adams

A Young Professionals Group

ACG Seattle is excited to be kicking off another Y20 program class, featuring a selected group of young professionals under the age of 35. The program represents a balanced cross section of the ACG Chapter to promote sharing of knowledge, perspectives and experience across industries.

ACG Seattle has initiated an application process for this young professionals group. Once selected, Y20 members will benefit from educational programs, networking events, and mentorship that runs from September 2017 – June 2019. Y20 members will gain valuable knowledge, insight and resources from their specific programming topics and networking opportunities that best meet their needs as well as their mentorship relationships.

Y20 Nominations

Nominations deadline is June 30, 2017. Y20 candidates do not need to be ACG members. Please submit applications with resume to ACG Seattle at kat@kdmanagement.net or fax to 206.299.9098.

Y20 Benefits

- Programs: The programming focuses on issues and activities of particular interest to young professionals in early stages of their career.
- Networking: Y20 members have the opportunity to network and establish relationships with other young professionals as well as ACG members.
- Mentorship: Selected ACG members serve as mentors to Y20 members. The mentorship relationship is designed to support young professionals and their growth in becoming future business leaders.

Y20 Membership Fee

The two-year program costs $795. It includes:

- 4-6 Y20 programs each year
- 3-5 Y20 networking events each year
- Complimentary registration to ACG Seattle's regular monthly programs each year ($745 value)
- One-year ACG Global membership in second year ($325 value)
- 50% discount off the registration fee to the Northwest Middle Market Growth Conference™ ($230 value)
- Mentorship opportunity

Application

Criteria: Must be active in a professional organization or company, under 35 years of age, demonstrated leadership skills and be on track to assume additional responsibilities, committed to full participation in Y20 Program, and manager must endorse participation in Y20 Program. Must include resume along with your application.

Recommendations: Y20 applicants are encouraged to submit supplemental support for their nomination, such as recommendations and additional references beyond manager.

PERSONAL INFORMATION

(Information may be typed and submitted in Word document)

First Name:

Last Name:

Job Title:

Place of Employment:

Business Address:
City, State, Zip:

Email:

Work Phone:

Cell Phone: (if preferred)

Application

OTHER INFORMATION

Manager's Name:

Manager's Title:

Manager's Email:

Name of Person Nominating You:
(if applicable)

PERSONAL STATEMENT

Please explain your current position and what you intend to gain from participating in Y20. Feel free to type your answers in a Word document.